They Use The Trust of Judges

Summary

The Show Cause Against Distribution Order and the Order of Distribution, as well as the Debts and Demands, are optional. The secret advisors ask for them after keeping accountings secret and stealing money. They use these as cover.

Re: Estate of Jean M. O'Connell

Fiduciary No. 49160

Dear Mr. O'Connell:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 29, 1993 concerning the above estate.

The first account in this matter was approved in March of this year and has been sent to the Clerk's Office and may be reviewed there.

The second account, for the period ending December 10, 1993, is due on or before April 10, 1994. While these papers are in this office, they are a public record which you may review. However, they will be audited and approved in due course regardless of whether they have been reviewed by you.

Yours very truly,

Jesse B. Wilson, III Commissioner of Accounts

JBW: va

cc: Edward J. White, Esquire
Jean Mary O'Connell-Nader

I would like to thank Commissioner Wilson for advising me of the Exceptions to Commissioners Report procedure (Reference 2c). But I do not understand why Commissioner Wilson did not tell me about the Debts and Demands procedure during the ten to fifteen times I visited his office to try to review the estate accountings.

Dear Jean and Mr. White:

In your letter to Mr. Prichard of July 7, 1993, you mention that you have chosen to file a Motion to Show Cause.

If the Motion to Show Cause means I am supposed to approve something by my signature, or by my failure to appear somewhere or remain silent is a de facto approval of something, would you please tell me what it is? If the issue includes accounting, would you please send me copies of these accounts?

Because I would be reluctant to approve something I don't understand, I ask you this now in order that there be no possible delay later. This is only a request for information. I thank you in advance.

Dear Ms. Nader and Mr. White:

Would you please send me a copy of your final estate accounting in time for me to go over it before it is approved?

I never knew you had a hearing for "Debts and Demands". Would you please let me know when you do your "Show Cause" for distribution?

Re: Estate of Jean M. O'Connell

Dear Mr. Prichard,

I have received the enclosed letter from your client.

He is not the fiduciary, and I do not have to submit documents to him for prior review.

His comments regarding debts and demands and wanting to be a part of the Show Cause process indicate that he would profit from advice from someone. Most of his problems throughout this affair have been from jumping to conclusions based on little or no legal knowledge.

Now that a closing letter has been received, I am moving as fast as possible to get this estate settled. I am frankly sick and tired of your client's actions.

Since you do not see fit to communicate with me despite numerous offers on my part I will admit to being more than frustrated.

Sincerely,

Edward J. White

I am still not allowed to see the accountings. But I am to sign documents for the stocks and approve a commission before I can receive my stock distribution.

Re: Estate of Jean M. O'Connell

Dear Mr. Prichard,

Enclosed is a copy of the final accounting and a receipt for Mr. O'Connell's signature acknowledging the disbursement of the three funds and the Fairfax County bonds. Accompanying it is a letter to me from Mrs. May which established the value on the date of disbursement.

The final fiduciary tax return is being sent to the accountant to be prepared. This will be a 1994 tax event as I understand it.

Mrs. Nader will send the final disbursement check directly to Mr. O'Connell as soon as she signs it. She will also request that he sign a statement agreeing to the payment of her commission. It is my understanding that she will give Sheila and Mr. O'Connell 1/3 of that commission after the deduction of income taxes payable by her on it.

I am not asking that Mr. O'Connell approve the accounting since I do not want it delayed. If he wants to quarrel about it, he can do so with the commissioner. I am enclosing the letter which will be sent to the commissioner concerning the commission.

If you have any questions or comments please contact me.

I tried to preempt this excuse five months ago.... I ask you this now in order that there be no possible delay later (page 2).

Sincerely

Edward J. White
